Now, as we have placed Ed upon the road to congress, if we can just get Fitz upon the bighway to the Lieutenant Governorship, we may have some hope, and alone of prosperity. People of Dodge Ony and Ford county should think of what great advantage it would be to us to have a congressman and Lieutenant Governor from this part of the short grass Mr. Walker who purchased the store of country. And if a state 'primary law is it. and Mrs. Swinney is full in it under passed, this will be likely the last time e will have to land a state officer. The west end of the state will be oversloughed by the thickly populated east end. Gov. and four outside. 77 died from January Hoch, in speaking of this phase of the question says, "I think the people of the western half of the state could depend upon the fairness and good judgement of the people of the rest of the state to give them a just representation. We can't depend upon anything of the kind. They even discriminate against us in the ap-pointment of Boards of Managers for this home, appointing men from the east part of the state who have just about as much interest in the stort grass country as they Mrs. Swinney has gone to Wagoner, I. interest in the stort grass country as they T. to visit a daughter. The foregoing conditions were the result of the presence of an area of low cut coats for a living."

Mr. Chadbourne replied: "Sure, I am owing the tailor, and every one else in town; but." he added, "I don't cut coats for a living."

The farmer looked at the carriage manufacturer a full minute before he "tumbled," and when he did, his laugh could be heard in the suburbs. -Boston Herald.
